Three men named McGee, Spratt and Wm. Farley have been arrested on suspicion of causing the Toronto fire of March 3rd '95.
The successful candidates in yesterday's bye-elections were: In Antigonish, McIsaac, liberal, majority 114. In Vercheres, Geoffrion, liberal, majority 168. In Quebec West, R. R. Doherty, independent, majority 9, and in Haldimand, Dr. Montague, conservative, majority 647.
The surprise in Haldimand is accounted for by the fact that the total vote polled in the constituency was only 1099, just about one third of the vote polled in the last election, when Montague defeated a liberal by 78. It was evident that the liberals did not vote yesterday, having made an agreement when Dr. Baxter was returned for the local recently that they would not oppose Montague.

A HORSE was taken from H. Hetu's stable in rear of the Edmonton Saw Mill Company's office on Monday night. The staple holding the lock was forced out. The horse is a roan, and has a collar gall on left shoulder. Mr. Hetu wants to know where the town watchman was.

THOS. HENDERSON, of Rabbit Hill, took his bees out of winter quarters on Saturday last, April 13th. Out of 70 swarms which were put into the cellar in the fall fourteen were dead. The rest were in good working condition. The cause of the loss of the fourteen swarms, was their having become queenless during the winter. The bees are now gathering honey from the poplar and willow buds.

The count of the ballots cast in Sturgeon, Morinville and Lake St. Ann polling divisions of St. Albert constituency, was held on Tuesday forenoon by Judge Rouleau. The count for Morinville and Lake St. Ann was the same as that by the deputy returning officers. In the Sturgeon vote four ballots were rejected, three of which had been counted for Maloney and one for Prince by the deputy returning officer. This change in the count does not affect the result.

THE Baptist congregation, hitherto meeting in the Methodist church, South Edmonton, will meet next Sunday morning in their own place of worship on Main street, a little north of Whyte avenue. A number of the friends from Edmonton are expected to assist in the service of song on the occasion.

THERE was a very pleasant wedding party at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Lauder, sen., Fraser avenue, on Tuesday evening, the occasion being the marriage of their daughter Margaret to Mr. Arthur Ormsby. Mr. Ed. Jackson was best man and Miss Maud Lauder, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D.G. McQueen, after which about forty guests sat down to an excellent dinner. Dancing followed. The wedding presents were numerous and beautiful.

PHIL DALY MISSING.

Not-Wester.

A few years ago, Phil Daly lived in Fort Rouge, with his wife. He moved from here to Edmonton when he embarked in the drug business, and also dabbled in real estate. He was a quiet, pleasant young man of excellent habits and very popular with those who knew him. Now comes word that he is missing from Edmonton. The Vancouver News Advertiser says:

"The chief of police has received a letter from Chief H. S. Casey, of the Northwest mounted police, asking for information regarding Mr. P. Daly, late of Edmonton, husband of Mrs. Daly, of that place. The missing man lived at Edmonton nine years ago and was a well to do druggist. He lost all he possessed through the failure of the Commercial bank of Winnipeg and left Edmonton, December 19th last, and Calgary on the 21st, saying he was going to Vancouver. The Chief believes that Mr. Daly would apply to druggists or real estate agents for employment. Hard luck or foul play, he believes, are responsible for his silence."

A SPUR TRACK.

The following reply has been received by Messrs. Beck & Emery, town solicitors, to a letter written to the president of the Canada Pacific railway company asking if the company would operate a spur track to the mill flat opposite town if it was built by the town:

MONTREAL, 7th April, 1895.

DEAR SIR:—I have your letter of the 1st. There were two qualifications to what I said about handling traffic over the proposed spur down to the flat opposite the town. One was that the grade should be practicable, and the other was that we could make no agreement extending beyond our present arrangements for working the Calgary & Edmonton line, which expires some time next year. I expressed the opinion that it was not possible to get down to the flat within a practicable grade, and I also stated that we were only working the line under an agreement which would expire in about three years from that time. It will only take your engineer two or three days to ascertain whether it will be practicable to build a workable spur down to the flat; indeed I think he can determine that in a very few hours.

Yours truly,

W. C. VAN HORNE.

MESSRS. BECK & EMERY, Edmonton.

PROTECTED MINES.

The Nor-Wester publishes an interview with Col. Baker of the British Columbia legislature in which he says that "The mining (silver) interest in that province is developing and now quite active, especially in the Kootenay district. The smelting works at Pilot bay have given an impetus to the industry, and could cheap fuel be secured these works would be very materially extended." At Canmore on the C. P. R. main line, within 200 miles of the Slooan mines, is an inexhaustible supply of coal suitable for smelting purposes. The mine is being worked, but a sufficient demand cannot be found for its output, so that its operations are restricted. The silver ores from Slooan are carried past this coal mine to smelters at Great Falls and Omaha, many hundreds of miles away, where there is no coal to smelt with. Canada has an inexhaustible supply of the richest silver ores at present being mined in the world. We have a still more inexhaustible supply of smelting coal situated within 200 miles of the ore on the same line of railway. Silver mining is at a disadvantage by reason of the immense cost of hauling the ore to the United States smelters, and coal mining is at the disadvantage of a limited demand. If there is any virtue in the policy of protection tending to the establishment of industries which will convert raw material into a valuable product, here is scope for it to show its self. If there is any value in railroad connection and railroad management as a means of bringing the ores and the coal within reach of each other so as to build up a profitable industry here is the chance for that value to be made apparent. All the cotton industries, all the sugar refining industries, all the other industries which exist only on protection in Eastern Canada are not of the value to the country as a means of employing labor in the creation of wealth that the establishment of silver smelting in the Rocky Mountains would be. We have the cotton mills and we have the sugar refineries as a result of protection, so it advocates claim, but we have not a smelting industry; which would be worth ten times as much to the country, and certainly to this western part of the country. If a duty on the import of silver ore or of refined silver or of smelting coal will assist in establishing such an industry we want it, and we want it right now; not only to make possible an extension of silver and coal mining operations but to help to make a home market for the farmers' produce in this part of the country. But if an increase of the duty on silver and coal will not assist the establishment of this industry, in the name of sense and in the interest of the people of the west, let the protective features of the tariff which increase the cost of machinery for smelting works, for silver mining, and for coal mining, and which increase the cost of labor in these several industries, be taken off. If protection cannot help this western industry it should at least not be allowed to hinder it. And the matter of railway rates would bear investigation in the same connection. Just with a view of finding what proportion of the total cost of mining machinery, materials and provisions goes to the railway company in cost of carriage and what proportion of that cost is just and what proportion unjust. And also with a view of finding whether the fact that ore can be hauled more cheaply to Omaha than it can be smelted at Canmore, has any connection with an unreasonable difference between long haul and short haul rates; as for instance whether the charge for hauling ore to Canmore is anything like as much as it is for hauling it three to ten times the distance. We have the ore, we have the coal, we have the railways and we have the protective policy, but we haven't the productive industry which should result. The reasonable conclusion is that the protective policy is not effective in this instance and that the railway is not run to develop the legitimate industries of the country.

GENERAL NEWS.

Cholera has broken out in Japan. Ploughing was commenced in the Prince Albert settlement on April 1st.

Nor-Wester: The C. P. R. will appoint agents in Grand Forks, Grafton and other points in Northern Minnesota and Dakota, as there promises to be quite a movement from these states to the Canadian Northwest and British Columbia.

Gretna correspondent of the Nor-Wester says that J. Henner with a car of settlers effects for Lacombe, Alberta, passed Gretna on April 10th. He is from Doon, Iowa. Messrs Beebe and Randall from the same place follow in a few days.

Edward McBeth, of Prince Albert, has been sentenced to three years penitentiary for stealing cattle from farmers of the Prince Albert district. Adam Dalgliesh was sentenced to one year in jail for receiving the cattle. The stolen cattle are at Calgary and will probably be returned to their rightful owners.

Alberta Tribune: The drought stricken districts of Nebraska have sent an appeal to California for seed with which to again make an effort to place themselves beyond the pale of charity. The California legislature has determined to make an appeal to the farmers of the state to aid their suffering brothers in Nebraska.

Winnipeg Tribune: Messrs. Sage and Norlander, who were sent out by the unemployed C. P. R. shopmen to look over the Edmonton country and select a location for the C. P. R. colony, returned Monday. They have reported in favor of Lacombe neighborhood, and as requested have selected twelve homesteads for men who will go out as soon as the arrangements can be completed, probably next week.

The following are some of the protective provisions of the present tariff relating to agriculture: Meat, 3 cents per pound; mutton and lamb, 35 per cent ad valorem; live hogs, 1 1/2 cents per pound; cheese, 3 cents per pound; hops, 6 cents per pound; living animals, 30 per cent, ad valorem; canned meats, 25 cents; poultry and game, 20 per cent; eggs are protected to the extent of 5 cents per dozen; hay, $2 per ton; potatoes, 15 cents per bushel.

James Bannerman, president of the Calgary board of trade, writes to the Calgary Herald regarding agricultural protection. He says: "A short time ago the present prime minister went to Australia for the purpose of opening up a market for Canadian manufactured goods. What are the results? Australian butter sold at 17 1/2 cents, and Australian mutton at 34 cents per pound in Vancouver. What do we get in return under this far-seeing policy of our most beneficial government. We have the privilege of paying $125,000 per annum to bonus a line of steamers to enable the Massey-Harris manufacturing company to sell their agricultural machinery cheaper to Australian farmers than they can to those in Alberta, and to enable the Australians to capture our market in the west for butter and mutton and that of the east for wool."

Prince Albert Advocate: Heretofore nearly all sections of the Northwest have been represented by government members, mere voting machines who supported the government when called upon, relegated the interests of their constituents to a back seat. It is not to be expected that a government located at Ottawa would have very much interest in our affairs to the exclusion of the greater Canada to the east, and therefore the ones of bringing the Northwest to the front falls on the local members. We have seen how these members have done so, and the people of the Northwest are waking up to the fact that we want more than an out and out government representation if they ever hope to have the country's interest brought forward in the manner it should be. A member who has the welfare of the country at heart and is independent enough to support the party who offers to do the most for it is the one who will be returned next election to the exclusion of all others.

WETASKIWIN.

A number of settlers arrived on Thursday's train.

E. Gilling arrived from Fort Saskatchewan on Friday's train, having completed his term in the mounted police force. He is employed in Mr. Gould's store.

Constable Phillips who was stationed at Duhamel has been transferred to Fort Saskatchewan. Constable Warren is now stationed at Duhamel.

Mr. Boyce left for Edmonton by trail on Sunday.

Wm. Brown arrived here on Sunday evening from Edmonton.

A number of immigrants arrived from Edmonton on Sunday, being dissatisfied with the country up there, and talk of settling here.

C. O. Swanson will arrive to-night with one hundred settlers for this place, and a large number of farmers are in town to-day to meet them.

Mr. Grant is loading a car of hay for N. W. Gould to-day.

April 11th, 1885.

LEUC GLEANINGS.

Ploughing is now rampant all over the settlement. Duncan McDonald is sowing wheat to-day.

Our land guide drove six land seekers from Edmonton on Saturday. They have struck west this morning pursued closely by J. Griffith and party from Kansas.

The kicking question now is the road question. All those settlers out west have very poor roads to town; none of them have yet been improved, while everyone seems to be under the impression that our local member is in fault in not taking steps to further the improvement of roads and bridges. It is probably not out of place to remind the different complainants that they are the parties who should take preliminary steps in this direction; they first should hold meetings and determine among themselves as to what roads are most needed. Then advise our member as to aid. As for township 49 and 50 in range 25, those two townships were through the energy of the residents established as fire and road districts last fall. It is now the committee's duty to call meetings and elect overseers, who must then see to what roads are most urgent and direct work accordingly; as all the work should be completed before the 15th July in each year. It is to be hoped that our committee will attend to this matter at once.

While other places along the line have recently been very active in advocating their rights, I must say that Leuc has been very backward in this point. Presumably it has been reserving its ammunition for bigger game. If so it is now time they should fire a volley at the C. P. R. and urge them to station an operator here; as it is shameful how we have been neglected by not being furnished with one long prior to this. If this hint is not sufficient more forcible ones will be adopted.

Two cars of Leuc soil have been shipped, one for Medicine Hat to be used as a fertilizer for the hospital garden, and one for Regina to be exhibited as a representation of Alberta's model soil at the Regina Territorial exhibition.

R. Featherstone and family arrived from the north on Friday and are now branded as a Leucian.

M. Barrett is still enjoying success, having recently been appointed C. F. R. land agent and guide. He is on his initial journey to-day.

One of the necessities of Leuc is a mounted policeman to be stationed here. Fires are visible in all directions, and no one to see to them, only an odd farmer piling on more wood.

HASTE.

ELECTION ADDRESS.

To the electors of Alberta.

GENTLEMEN.—As the nominee of the convention of Alberta Liberals which was held recently at Calgary, and having been assured of a strong support by the patrons of industry in Northern Alberta, as well as at the solicitation of a large number of independent conservatives in this part of the country, I have the honor to offer myself as a candidate for the representation of Alberta in the Commons at the approaching general election. The stand which I take with the full knowledge and consent of those who have tendered me their support is that of an independent as to party, but not as to principle. On the main question at present at issue between the liberal and conservative parties, I understand that the organizations and individuals tendering me their support have done so with the wish and expectation that I would and will so far as lies in my power support the policy of a tariff for revenue as against the policy of a tariff for protection, which is the declared policy of the present government; on the ground that the protective policy discriminates unjustly against the western producer in favor of the eastern manufacturer.

Although holding strongly with the liberal party and also the patron organization on this point, I have not bound myself to either of these because I believe that the first duty of the single representative of so great a country holding such great possibilities as this district of Alberta should be to use his every energy for the further development of this country and the realization of these possibilities; as he can not if he is to be subject to restraint by the exigencies of any party. This constituency has had party representation during the past eight years,—has been represented by a member of the party in power then and now. If the results have been satisfactory, that principle should be continued. If not it should be changed. It is because I believe that this system of party representation has been gravely injurious to this district that I have consented to make the personal sacrifice involved in my candidature, and because, so far as I know, no other person was likely to come forward to advocate these or like views.

In a region so vast and varied as Alberta it would be impossible for any man at any time to define all the points of policy that would affect each locality, therefore I do not attempt to do so here. I hope from time to time, however, in the course of the contest, to have the opportunity to discuss fully with the electors at most of the principal centres of population, all matters that may come up for discussion, in whatever shape they may appear. That such a vast region, having such a large population and such important interests should be accorded only one representative is as plain a case of injustice as is required to show the glaring failure of party representation to secure the people in even their simplest rights. The matter of railway extension and railway rates particularly in the north and the question of irrigation in the south seem to be the great questions affecting the interests of the district with which parliament will from time to time have to deal. I need not point out that while these are vital questions to Alberta, they are not party questions at all, and it is all the more necessary that your representative should be in a position to advocate your interests in regard to them in parliament without party hindrance even if he has to do it without party support.

Speaking generally I may say that I will support a policy of development for Alberta and while I will not bind myself to ask for favors for any section or interest I will bind myself to do all in my power to see that each section and every interest receives fair and equal treatment.

In conclusion I will say that although I have no personal interest to serve or ambition to gratify by entering upon this contest, yet having entered upon it in good faith I shall do all I can to win, and ask for the active assistance of every man who believes that the success of the principles which I have been selected to advocate would be in the interest of this constituency and of the country.

Respectfully Yours,

FRANK OLIVER.

INNKEEPERS.

A number of settlers are coming in. Some have been here before, either as residents or as visitors, and liked the district so well that they have decided to resume or common permanent residence. Among them may be mentioned Messrs. Duff and Daniels, of Ducks, B. C.; Lundy and Cameron, of Chilliwhack, B. C.; McCormick, of Moscow, Idaho, and others. On the other hand, some old timers are leaving us for various reasons. Mr. John Thomson has gone to the Soo, Mr. Craven, to Muskoka, Mr. Miller and Golden B. C. and Messrs. W. Miller and G. Scholtz, to Dakota. We are sorry to lose them. Let us hope they will see their way clear to return, sooner or later.

April sunshine and showers are proverbial and the weather, though open, is broken. However, the frost is steadily going out of the ground, and agriculture is in full swing.

The Rev. David Spear held service morning and evening in the Presbyterian church on Easter Sunday, and preached interesting and appropriate sermons on both occasions. The Rev. Dr. Good conducted Methodist service in the school house in the evening.

The Red Deer river west of here is in very bad shape. The centre of the stream is open, but the sides are still piled with ice, and this fact, combined with the rapid current, makes crossing in a boat both difficult and dangerous. The sooner a bridge of some kind is started the better, and it ought to be managed, at the latest during next winter, as the landowners on the north side, for whose benefit the undertaking would chiefly be put through, are willing to give a large amount of free work in the construction. This ought to be an inducement to any government to assist such a numerous and industrious settlement.

Building in town is going on all the time, and improvements of every kind are in the near future. Mr. W. Kerr is about to build a substantial residence near Mr. J. A. Simpson's property.

Mr. Lundy, of Chilliwhack, who has been here some time, intends to rent the Murray House, but as Mr. Murray is at present in the east, the arrangements will take some time to be put through.

Mr. W. Kemp has bought the Content livery stable and will move it across the Main street, next to Wilson's blacksmith shop, where he will build extensive additions and veneer the whole structure with brick. Mr. R. Wynn is going in with him as partner in the business, and they ought to do well, as there are no two men better liked in town.

Mr. Whitworth moved Mr. Brashier's stable a few days ago from the parsonage property to Mr. S. P. Freeman's lot on Front street.

The Rev. Mr. Sing went to Calgary last week.

Mr. G. W. West is away on a business tour through the Kootenay country, opening a market for our butter and other produce, of which he handles considerable quantities.

The assessment roll for the school district has been made up, and the court of revision is to be held on Saturday the 27th April.

April 15th, 1895.

HORSE HILLS.

Sending is now in full blast and farmers are bending their energies to put in all they can.

Several new buildings are in course of erection, and everything looks as if the people meant to stay, from the substantial improvements that are being made.

The patrons of industry met at the school house. A good deal of business was transacted and things in general discussed. Politics and politicians came in for their full share. Several speeches were made and Frank Oliver seemed to be the favorite to send to Ottawa. He has always done his duty in the legislature and can be trusted to do it again in the commons.

D. Maloney, M. L. A. for St. Albert, is taking a deep interest in getting fire and statute labor districts organized, so that the people can have better roads and bridges. He is now providing the several districts with senapars and other implements.

April 15th, 1895.

AN AFFLICTED REGION.

The condition of Nebraska and parts of other states that are suffering from the effects of a succession of dry seasons, has not been exaggerated. This is what the Portland Oregonian says about the extent of the afflicted region, and of a cause that greatly contributes to aggravate its distress:

The region stricken by the drouth is moneyless. This is not Nebraska alone, but a tract 600 miles square, reaching well into Western Iowa, South Dakota and half way across Kansas. This is the tract redeemed from the great American desert of pioneer tradition by energy of settlement, but it has remained next door to a desert industrially as well as geographically, in that it has remained dependent upon a single industry. Cereal production alone enabled this region to sustain life and support the complex social structure of trade and transportation, urban industry and banking. Cities and mercantile agencies, wholesale and retail, banks and packing houses, all rested upon the single crop of wheat-growing for export and milling and corn-growing for feeding to cattle and hogs. Destruction of the one prop of the social organization by extreme and long continued drouth brings the whole structure tumbling into ruins and reduces a once productive region to a state as unfit to sustain life or to support the fabric of society as that of the sagebrush desert to the west.

MINISTREL PERFORMANCE.

The minstrel performance by the members of the Edmonton orchestra society held on Monday evening in Robertson hall was one of the most successful entertainments ever given in Edmonton. The attendance was good and the performance excellent. The programme was as follows: Opening chorus, by the company. Song, "Down where the cotton grows," A. G. Randall. End song, "Root-te-toot," Jas. Lauder. Ballad, "Sleep and dream," A. Prince. End song, "Linger Longer Loo," N. Jackson. Song, "Oh Fanny," E. L. Smith. End song, "I'm the father of a little black cow," S. Garham. Ballad, "I will take you home Kathleen," E. Sheppard. End song, "Alabama Coo," H. Anthony, encore. Song, "Merrily blows the breeze," F. D. Fortin. Finale, "Let us be Jappy together," in which Misses Clara Lauder and Gracie Walker took part. Intermission. Selection by Orchestra. Quartette, "Ding Dong Ding," Messrs. Fortin, Prince, Anthony and Randall. Character song, "Old Black Joe," S. Garham. Stump speech, "Temperance," A. G. Randall. The comic burlesque, "Wagner out Wagger," concluded the entertainment. The characters were: Professor Sheepskin, F. D. Fortin; Slippery Bob, H. Anthony; Rosinbow, G. H. Perches; Pinstriped Baron, A. G. Randall; Madame Squalline, N. Jackson; Edgardo, S. Garham; Raz-zorini, E. Sheppard; Baron of South Edmonton, Jas. Lauder. The preceding part of the programme was good, but the burlesque was the funniest thing by all odds that has ever been seen in Edmonton. All the parts were well taken and Mr. Anthony's song received a merited encore.

CORRESPONDENCE.

St. John, Peace River, March 18th, 1895.

EDITOR BULLETIN.

SIR:—In your paper of Jan. 21st, we saw a report from Mr. Fred Brick booming this country as to crops and gold washing. The report was incorrect. We have been here for five years and all we have seen the Indians living on is Saskatoon berries and rabbits. The outlook is very serious, for when the rabbits die the people die. The miners of the upper Peace river have all left, for they cannot get flour for love or money, and they cannot get the gold if the flour was here. As to farming land on Peace river, as far as we have seen, two hundred acres would catch it all. As to the winter, it is very mild; warm days and cold nights. People who want to come into the country to make their fortune had better stay away if they have not got a government sit. As to the Hudson's Bay Company, their clerks deserve all credit for what they do. They have used us like gentlemen.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE.

The following resolution of condolence was passed by the Edmonton Council Royal Templars of Temperance at the regular meeting held on Monday evening last:

EDMONTON, April 15th, 1895.

Mrs. J. McINTYRE, Regina.

DEAR MADAM:—We the members of the Edmonton Council Royal Templars of Temperance extend to you our heartfelt sympathy in your sore bereavement. We feel the loss very keenly of your son's early departure from active work among us. It seems hard to part with loved ones, but it is the way with all humanity. So let us be patient.

These severe afflictions
Not from the ground arise
Of times celestial benedictions
Assume this dark disguise.

We see but dimly through the mist and vapors
And these earthly damps
What seem to us sad funeral tapers
May be heaven's distant lamps.

A letter at best is but a poor comforter; for it only dimly portrays a shadow of the sympathy we fain would extend to you and yours. Our one prayer is, that we may meet you one and all with the loved one who has gone before.

Yours in Christ.
